

Board of Education

- a. What are your top three priorities for Howard County?
- b. What values will inform the policies you pursue once elected to office?
- c. What can the Howard County Board of Education do better and how can you make that happen?
- d. What experiences have you had where you've worked with others to create solutions to difficult problems?
- e. Economic inequality is greater in the United States than ever before. Howard County is among the wealthiest counties in the nation, but over a quarter of our neighbors don't have enough money to make ends meet at the end of the month. Students from struggling families often struggle in school. What role can the Howard County Public Schools take in addressing economic inequality and ameliorating the impacts of economic inequality in our children's educational outcomes?
- f. Black and brown students in HCPSS are more likely to be suspended and expelled and less likely to graduate than their white and Asian American classmates. What do you believe HCPSS can and should do to address these and other racial disparities in our public schools?

County Council

- a. What are your top three priorities for Howard County?
- b. What values will inform the policies you pursue once elected to office?

- c. What can the Howard County Council do better and how can you make that happen?
- d. What experiences have you had where you've worked with others to create solutions to difficult problems?
- e. Economic inequality is greater in the United States than ever before. Howard County is among the wealthiest counties in the nation, but over a quarter of our neighbors don't have enough money to make ends meet at the end of the month. What role can the Howard County Council take in addressing economic inequality and ameliorating the impacts of economic inequality in our community?
- f. Howard County's Black, brown, and immigrant residents face social, economic, educational, and housing inequities. What role can the Howard County Council take in addressing racial injustice in our community?

- Respond in a locked PDF
- Your responses will be published on our website
- We will make a statement of endorsement